Economic Update with John Mitchell

12 Years, Place and New Risks

Please join RMA Puget Sound on March 3rd for our next membership luncheon with John Mitchell, Ph.D., a principal at M & H Economic Consultants and former U.S. Bancorp Chief Economist. John is a charismatic and well-versed speaker, captivating the room with his unique style of presentation. He has spent over 40 years traveling around the nation giving economic presentations.

John Mitchell received his Ph.D. from the University of Oregon and was a Professor of Economics at Boise State University for 13 years before joining U.S. Bancorp where he was Chief Economist / Western Region Economist until 2007. John was a member of the Western Blue Chip Forecast Panel, a Trustee of Aquila Tax-Free Trust of Oregon and a board member of Oregon Mutual Insurance Company, Western Capital Corporation and Northwest Bank.

We can't wait to hear his views on the economy for 2020, as well as insider information on key economic trends driving business at local and national levels. John's presentations are always up-to-date and topical, focusing on the now and the near future of the economy. You won't want to miss this key speaker!
